Article II

Terms

The term of Sponsorship will commence on January 1, 2020, or (if received after January 1, 2020) the date payment is received, and will terminate on December 31, 2020. Sponsorships paid after February 1, 2020 cannot be prorated to accommodate for less Seminar availability.

The code of ethics adopted by PAPA is as follows:
To promote and maintain high standards of public service and conduct in order that agricultural suppliers may justly be regarded as professionals and that the public may have increasing confidence in their integrity, and that the practice of pest management may best serve the public interest. It is understood that the following are PAPA rules, regulations and conditions for the Sponsor. PAPA expects each Sponsor and their representatives and employees to abide by the rules, regulations, and conditions given herein and by subsequent amendments and additions, considered by the PAPA Board of Directors. PAPA has developed these rules, regulations and conditions for the best interest of all the Sponsors and Seminar registrants. The Sponsor must abide by the following rules, regulations, and conditions:

Article III

Conditions

a) Sponsors shall refrain from unfair business practices through the following:
   • Must limit their activities to within the confines of the table space in a manner consistent with non-interference of activities legitimately exercised by other Sponsors, seminar speakers, and PAPA staff.
   • Maintain a reputation for fair and honorable conduct with customers, employees, and suppliers.
   • Conduct business on the basis of service to the industry and the public.
   • Avoid false, misleading, or deceptive advertising.
   • Abide by laws and regulations affecting the pest management industry and to promote their enforcement. To acknowledge that governmental and recognized standard are the mutual responsibility of the product manufacturer and user.

b) Sponsors may not sell products at PAPA seminars. This includes any type of exchange including credit cards, purchase orders, etc. No vending is allowed.

c) Sponsors and their representatives are not eligible to receive CEU credits for the seminars at which they display.

d) Sponsors may make product forms available on table-top display only. Material regarding Sponsor’s products and/or displays not related to the educational content of a speaker's presentation may not be placed in the registration packets.

e) Sponsors must limit their solicitation activities to prior to the seminar, after the seminar, and during breaks and lunch times. Sponsors are required to shut down their displays during the educational portion of the seminar.
f) The Sponsor should plan to set up their display during the early morning registration period. Since registration time may vary from site to site, consult the Educational Coordinator for the time at the site the Sponsor wishes to attend. The Educational Coordinator will advise the Sponsor of the break times and/or the Sponsor can request a copy of the agenda from the Educational Coordinator.

g) The Sponsor must notify the Educational Coordinator no less than 7 business days before the PAPA seminar if the Sponsor plans to participate. Depending upon space available, the Educational Coordinator can make arrangements to have a display table available for the Sponsor or Sponsor’s representative. Availability is limited based on each individual venue, and spaces are reserved on a first come, first serve basis.

h) A maximum of two lunches per seminar will be provided to the attending Sponsor/representative(s). If more lunches are needed for the Sponsor/representative(s), additional lunches can be purchased. The Educational Coordinator can provide the cost of additional lunches on a per seminar basis.

i) If the Sponsor reserves space at a seminar but cannot attend, PAPA must receive a minimum of 3 days notice for non-attendance. Notice less than 3 days in advance of the requested seminar, or no notice at all, will count toward the total number of seminars that the applicable Sponsorship level allows.

j) All Sponsor representatives/personnel will be required to sign-in on the provided Sponsor sign-in sheet the morning of the applicable seminar.

Article IV
Suspension of Sponsorship

a) PAPA reserves the right to prohibit, reject, or eject any Sponsor’s representative, or exhibit in whole or part, with or without giving cause. If cause is not given, liability shall not exceed the return to the Sponsor of the Sponsorship fee at the time of ejection. If a Sponsor is ejected for violation of these terms and conditions or for any other reason, no return of the Sponsor fee shall be made.

b) PAPA reserves the right to refuse acceptance of a Sponsor due to the Sponsor exhibiting professional misconduct by not abiding to the terms and conditions given herein, any subsequent amendments and additions considered by PAPA Board of Directors.

Legal Recourse
PAPA Board of Directors determinations regarding suspension, revocation, or ejection shall be final.
